Aboriginal Organisation Ngarluma Yindjibarndi Foundation Limited (NYFL) and Tutt Bryant Establish Joint Venture

Garlbagu Tutt Bryant is a newly incorporated joint venture between Ngarluma Yindjibarndi Foundation Limited (NYFL) and Tutt Bryant. Garlbagu is the business arm of NYFL, which represents the Ngarluma and Yindjibarndi people in the Pilbara area of Western Australia. NYFL was formed to establish a sustainable future for its members and beneficiaries through social business enterprises, one that realises their economic, cultural and lifestyle opportunities as well as strengthening their cultural heritage.

Partnering with leading business operators to create training and employment prospects for the community, NYFL's business enterprises through Garlbagu seek to engage and upskill its people, giving them long term opportunities, independence and security. The word Garlbagu means 'Rise Up', because together we are stronger.

Garlbagu Tutt Bryant is Tutt Bryant's first joint venture with an Aboriginal organisation. Operating from the heart of traditional Ngarluma and Yindjibarndi lands in Karratha and Roebourne, Garlbagu Tutt Bryant aims to support customers and projects with general equipment and plant hire services. Deploying quality well-maintained plant and equipment for hire that is backed by locally based customer service and technical support, the new venture strives to be the supplier of choice in the Pilbara region.

In addition to plant and equipment hire, Garlbagu Tutt Bryant also offers equipment servicing and transportation services, while aiming to provide training pathways and employment opportunities to Aboriginal people.

Garlbagu Tutt Bryant seeks genuine outcomes that create long-term sustainable change under the motto 'driving social change through business'.
